Agenda 9 Other matters (if any)

The Chairman gave the opportunity to the shareholder or proxy to make inquiries or provide suggestions to the Board of Directors or the Company's executive.

Mr. Aphiban Ariyakulkan, a shareholder, asked the Company as follows:

1. Has the Company directly or indirectly affected from the sanctions against Russia? and How?

Answer: At present, the Company has not been affected by any such incident.

2. The Company's business is based on technologies that are understood to be developed by the United States in the future. It was used as a weapon in the boycott. Will it affect the service to customers who are not friendly to the United States?

Answer: Most of the Company's technology is developed by the company itself. Therefore, there is no material impact on the Company's customers in such cases.

3. Is there another technology back up for the Company's platform if the US can boycott the technology the company uses to serve its customers?

Answer: Most of the company's platforms are developed by the company itself. Therefore, there is no material impact on the Company's customers in such cases.

4. "New World Order" is a threat to the Company's business. How and what are our plans for support?

Answer: The Company must not stand still and must develop in various fields and have to adapt to the changing currents of the situation all the time.

There were no further inquiries, the moderator, therefore, informed the Meeting that the Company, through the Stock Exchange of Thailand/Company's website, had previously invited shareholders to propose other agendas but no shareholder did so. As such, there was no other agenda to consider at this Meeting.

Nevertheless, the Chairman informed the Meeting that the minutes of this Meeting would be posted on the Company's website for shareholders to review. Any shareholder who wishes to propose any adjustment to the minutes may contact the Company.

The Chairman then thanked all shareholders and declared the meeting adjourned at 10.19 a.m.
